

8VB presents:

NOTRE JAM

Jazz for all ears

GAPING THE BRIDGE BETWEEN JAZZ AND POP

Giving contemporary pop songs the “jazz treatment”, this bold jazz quartet formed by outstanding Brazilian musicians reconciles jazz with pop and Brazilian music through their takes on Prince, Djavan, Donald Fagen, Tom Jobim, Sade, Chico Buarque, Adrian Belew, Caetano Veloso, Peter Gabriel, Gilberto Gil, Sting, Zé Rodrix, Paul Simon, Milton Nascimento and Stevie Wonder - and then some!

Bruno Migliari: Baixo - a Rio de Janeiro native bassist/composer/arranger active in the Jazz, Pop/Rock and World Music scenes. Graduated on upright bass in '94 at Uni-Rio Conservatory, Bruno plays every kind of bass (upright, electric, fretless and synth) and have 20+ years of experience recording and touring with many of Brazil's top recording artists and leading his own jazz projects - currently the Notre Jam jazz quartet and the Bicho Músico band. visit brunomigliari.mus.br

AC: Sax Tenor - has a Performance degree at the prestigious Berklee College of Music (Boston USA), a master degree at California Institute of Arts. (Los Angeles, USA) and a doctorate at UNI Rio College (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil) .Won the prestigious Woodwind Berklee Performance Achievement Award and has released 6 albums as a leader, AC is a prominent saxophonist in the Brazilian jazz scene, having played with Zimbo Trio, Paulo Braga, Claudio Infante, Claudio Dausberg, Paulinho Moska, Victor Biglione, Adriano Giffoni and Robertinho Silva. Visit acjazz.com.br

Check out our YouTube playlist

Contact:

migliaribasso@mac.com

+55 21 99707 07096